HONGKONG OFFICE: 10A, DES VOGES ROAD O. LONDON OFFICE: 181, FLEET STREET, E.C.

The Daily Press.

HONGKONG, OCTOBER 16TH, 1912.

The situation in the Balkans, as we have it revealed in the telegrams to-day, is that Turkey is prepared—"determined" is the word used—to carry out reforms in Macedonia, but "cannot tolerate any foreign interference." On the other hand, the Confederacy is demanding autonomy for Macedonia, with a Belgian or Swiss Governor-General, elective Provincial Councils, the creation of a gendarmerie and militia, and free education. Whether all this fits in with the Porte's notions of reforms for Macedonia yet remains to be learnt; but it is highly probable, we think, that the Turkish Government's contemplated reforms do not go beyond those by which it purchased peace in Albania three or four months ago. On this basis an agreement between the Porte and the Confederacy may be possible, but the crisis has become too acute now to inspire a hopeful feeling. A special correspondent of The Times in the Balkans, who exhibits a strong sympathy with constitutional Turkey, has recently given a picture of the Porte's rule in Macedonia which enables us to appreciate the strong attitude which the Confederacy has taken up. He writes—

"Nothing indeed could be more sad than the history of Macedonia under the rule of the Committee—the dawn of liberty, the extinction of political freedom, the disarmament of 1910, with all its attendant horrors, so carefully concealed from the outer world that for many months nothing was known of them in Europe; the illegal application of the merciless law of brigandage, under which the families, relatives and neighbours of the insurgents were vicariously punished; and in some cases transported to Asia Minor; the 'plantation' of Christian districts with Moslem immigrants, a measure recalling the barbarous days of the Ottoman conquest; the formation of semi-authorized bands composed of the creatures of the Turkish committees, and lastly the elections of last winter, at which the peasants were driven like sheep to the polls and compelled by every method of chicanery, intimidation and violence to vote for their oppressors."

The country is described as being literally infested with bands of assassins and robbers, and Turkish policy, it is said, keeps these bands recruited. Peasants are seized and brutally flogged for offences, suspected and real, and the outrageous treatment drives them to the outlaws. The precise and insistent demand of the Balkan States that guarantees should be given for the better treatment of the Macedonian Christians cannot but command universal sympathy, and it is plainly apparent that the time has arrived when this protracted tragedy must be ended. That Bulgaria, Serbia, and Greece have refrained for a whole week from following the lead of Montenegro shows that they are animated by a sincere desire to exhaust all peaceful means of obtaining satisfaction of their demands, but with news of the Montenegrin successes against the Turk ringing throughout the Balkan States, the danger of a general conflagration must hourly become more imminent. No substantial ground for belief that the war will not spread is afforded in the terms of the Porte's replies to the Notes addressed to it by the Powers; and the only glimmer of hope that remains is that the Powers may yet bring the Porte to see that even if she should successfully emerge from a war with the Confederacy, the protection of Christians under Turkish control must be guaranteed if peace is to be permanently established in this region. Failing the success of the Powers to avert the war, it is satisfactory to gather that their policy will be to localise hostilities. Active military intervention by the Powers would be fraught with consequences too terrible to contemplate, especially in the case of Great Britain because of her millions of Moslem subjects. Throughout the world it must be sincerely hoped that diplomacy may yet work the miracle in which the venerable Emperor of Austria-Hungary recently professed his confidence.

The Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Co. are running the Heung-shan on the excursion to Macao next Sunday.

At the Magistracy yesterday Mr. Melbourne sentenced a man to six weeks' hard labour, four hours in the stocks and 12 strokes with the birch for snatching a gold bangle from a child in the street.

The Manila papers report that the body of Tommy Conneff, who has held for fifteen years the amateur record for runners over a mile course, has been found floating in the Pasig river. The police are investigating the circumstances which led to his death. No marks of violence were found, and intimate friends of the dead man, who was a sergeant in E troop, 7th cavalry, stationed at Fort McKinley, scout the idea of suicide as absurd.

The Peking Daily News, we note, "categorically and emphatically contradicts the statement of Le Journal de Peking that it (the Daily News) is 'the official organ of the Government, working under the immediate control of the Wai-chiao-pu.' The Peking Daily News describes this as a 'frigid and calculating lie.' Some weeks ago Dr. Sun Yat-sen's paper, the China Republic, referred to the Daily News as 'the bright appendage of the Foreign Office.'

A private in the K.O.Y.L.I. named Albert Johnson was charged before Mr. Irving at the Magistracy yesterday with refusing to pay richa hire and also with assaulting an Indian constable. It appeared that defendant took the richa for a short distance and on alighting tendered a ten cent piece, asking for five cents back. The coolie not having the change was going to another to obtain five cents, when defendant caught him by the arm and pulled him, causing him to drop the coin. An Indian constable who interfered was said to have been assaulted by the defendant. It was admitted that defendant proceeded quietly to the Police Station. His Worship dismissed the case.

TYPHOON WARNING.

The telegram quoted below was received at the American Consulate General, Hongkong, from the Manila Observatory at 11.55 a.m. yesterday—

"Cyclone or typhoon over the Eastern Visayas moving W. Cyclone or typhoon W. of Southern Luzon or Mariana Islands moving N.W."

CARGO THEFTS.

Four men and a woman, including the quartermaster of the s.s. Hazel Dollar, were charged before Mr. Melbourne at the Magistracy yesterday with stealing 16 bags of copra, value $70, the property of the Robert Dollar Steamship Company, and five men were charged with receiving the copra knowing it to have been stolen.

Mr. Roderick Macdonald, chief officer of the Hazel Dollar, appeared to prosecute, and Mr. Reader Harris appeared to defend the first man charged with receiving.

L.S. Wills said this was one of the many cases of people going on board ships early in the morning and stealing cargo, the loss of the cargo frequently not being discovered until the ships had left. In the present case the copra was consigned from Manila to San Francisco, and about three o'clock on Monday morning two men went on board the Hazel Dollar and were supposed to have removed 16 bags. The quartermaster on watch at the time was one of the parties charged with the theft. At 7.15 the same morning the police discovered at Yaumatei Bay a large junk which had on board 16 bags of copra. Inquiries elicited that the copra was missing from the Hazel Dollar. The first defendant was a marine store dealer in Yaumatei.

After hearing evidence, his Worship remanded the case till Thursday.

FUNERAL OF MR. P. NOLASCO DA SILVA.

The funeral of Mr. Pedro Nolasco da Silva, at Macao on Sunday afternoon was a great public demonstration of respect and esteem. The cortege was headed by about 400 boys from the public schools each bearing a floral wreath or cross. Following these came the bearers of silver crosses and the vicars and priests representing the four principal churches of the Colony. Then came the boys of St. Joseph's College bearing candles. The principal mourners were four sons of the deceased—Porphiro, Luiz, José and Henrique, and his son-in-law, Captain Lobato. Among others present were:—H.E. Senor Miranda, Acting Governor of the Colony, attended by his A.D.C., the Chief Justice (Senor Souza), the Attorney General (Senor Mendes), Lieut.-Col. Santos, and a large number of Army and Naval officers, the members of the Senado, and crowds of friends, including a large number of ex-pupils of the various schools with which the deceased gentleman had been so prominently identified. The Chinese community was also largely represented. The bands of the Rev. Mr. Lau and the Orphanage played the funeral marches.

After the ecclesiastical ceremonies at the grave side, His Excellency the Governor delivered a short funeral oration eulogistic of the eminent services the deceased had rendered not only to the Colony but to Portugal, and His Excellency concluded by commending to all the example the late Senor Nolasco da Silva had so worthily set.

Senor F. H. Fernandes, Acting President of the Senado, and Senor Patricio J. da Luz, Secretary of the Senado and of the "Associação Promotora do Instrucao dos Macanenses" also delivered funeral orations.

FIRE ON N.Y.K. STEAMER AT KOBE.

Fire broke out on board the N.Y.K. Calcutta liner Totomaru in Kobe at 4.30 a.m. on the 3rd inst. The flames started in hold No. 4, which contained 2,000 bags of rapeseed shipped from Calcutta for Yokohama, 800 bags of the same material transhipped from the Ceylon-maru, and 250 packages of sundries transhipped from the Tamaguchimaru.

According to the Jiji, the Nippon Yusen Kaisha is reported to have decided to construct three steamers, each of an aggregate tonnage of 13,000 tons. Orders for these vessels will shortly be placed with the Kawasaki and Mitsui Bishi Shipbuilding Yards. When completed they will be placed on the European service. The N.Y.K. further contemplates building five or six more large steamers. The paper adds that the Kawasaki and Mitsui Bishi Shipbuilding Yards are constructing for the same Company one vessel each having an aggregate tonnage of 10,500 tons.

THE BALKAN EMBROGLIO.

THE ATTITUDE OF THE POWERS.

LONDON, October 15th.

The Notes presented by the Balkan States to the Austrian, Russian and Turkish representatives at Athens and Sofia are identical with those presented at Belgrade.

The Notes presented to Turkey specify the reforms demanded in great detail and remind her of the undertaking to introduce them within six months.

The Note to the Powers thanks the latter for their interest, but, after recalling the numerous promises by Turkey recorded in international documents, it says that the Allied States are anxious to obtain more definite results than have hitherto been obtained, and they have decided to address Turkey direct.

A later message states that the Notes of the Balkan States to Turkey demand the autonomy of Macedonia, Belgian or Swiss Governors-General, elective provincial councils, the creation of a gendarmerie, militia and free education.

TURKEY'S DETERMINATION.

Reuter's correspondent at Constantinople wires that the reply of the Porte to the Embassies was handed to the Austrian Ambassador on Monday morning. While thanking the Powers for their friendly interest in the situation in the interests of peace, it says that the Porte is determined to carry out the reforms but cannot tolerate any foreign interference. Its efforts to carry out the reforms up to the present have been impeded by all kinds of obstacles and outrages. Nevertheless, the Government had persevered and had decided to apply the Vilayets Law directly it was sanctioned by the Chamber and the Sultan, but the Government was unable to admit the bearing of Article 23 on the present situation.

LATER.

It is expected that the Porte will ignore the Note of the Confederacy, which has excited surprise and wrath. The Turkish officials are furious at what they describe as the colossal impudence of minor states in adopting a tone which the Powers never used to Turkey.

THE SITUATION AT SAMOS.

Reuter learns that the British, French and Russian Consuls at Smyrna are proceeding to Samos to draw up an organic charter for the Principality. Greece would interpret this action as an interference calculated to deprive her of the advantages resulting from the superiority of her fleet in the event of war.

A later message states that Reuter learns that the Consuls have gone to Samos to report on the conditions there. The telegram with reference to the charter is incorrect.

DEFIANT CRETE.

The Cretan Deputies, profiting by the war situation, are defying the Powers. They have entered the Greek Chamber of Deputies.

A later message states that the Cretans received a vociferous welcome from the Chamber. The Premier declared that the Government accepted the vote of the Cretan Assembly in favour of union with Greece, and henceforth there would be only one chamber for Greece and Crete. Greece was ready to face all dangers and was confident of victory.

GREECE READY FOR WAR.

Reuter's correspondent at Athens telegraphs that the Government has instructed the Greek Minister at Constantinople to demand the release of the Greek ships and an indemnity for the owners within twenty-four hours.

THE STOCK EXCHANGE.

The Stock Exchange has a more dignified tone, but there is still acute uneasiness. Consols touched 27½. A reassuring factor, however, is that the Continental Bourses have regained some of their equilibrium.

AUSTRIA'S ATTITUDE.

Reuter's Vienna correspondent wires that it is announced that no military action by the Confederacy in the Sanjak of Novibazar will induce Austro-Hungary to interfere. Only after the termination of hostilities will the Dual Monarchy act as the protection of its interests in the Balkans require.

THE FIGHTING IN MONTENEGRO.

HEAVY LOSSES.

REPORTED SURRENDER OF TUZI.

LONDON, October 15th.

Reuter's correspondent at Podgoritz telegraphs that a despatch from General Mukovitch states that he occupied the hill near Gusinje, yesterday. The Turks offered up a desperate resistance and heavy losses were inflicted on both sides. Afterwards the Montenegrins captured two positions commanding Gusinje, four machine guns, and many rifles and ammunition.

Up to the present the Montenegrin losses number 253 killed and 800 wounded.

A later telegram from Podgoritz, the Montenegrin headquarters, states that Tuzi has surrendered.

The Montenegrins captured many guns, 7,000 rifles, and six Turkish regular battalions.

LATER.

The Montenegrins at noon were preparing to storm the Turkish position when a Turkish officer bearing a white flag appeared, and unconditionally surrendered. Then a deputation of the burghers of Tuzi came to General Prince Danilo, begging for mercy and pardon.

The Montenegrin troops made a triumphal entry into Tuzi in the afternoon and were welcomed with jubilation by the Christian and Malissori inhabitants.

The booty included many horses, 800 tents, and ten days' food supplies.

MONTENEGRINS MEET WITH DISASTER.

The Times correspondent at Cetinje telegraphs that the searchlights from Scutari were thrown upon 1,000 Montenegrins preparing to attack Tarabosh. The quickfiring guns in Tarabosh immediately opened fire, mowing down the Montenegrins, who disregarded the orders to retire and advanced amid a hail of bullets. It is believed they were nearly all wiped out.

MONTENEGRINS REPULSED.

Reuter's correspondent at Constantinople wires that official telegrams report that reinforcements reached Gusinje and assumed the offensive, driving back the Montenegrins. The Turks, who are now fighting in Montenegrin territory, claim the victory at Tuzi.

TURKS INVADE SERBIA.

EXTENSIVE FIGHTING.

LONDON, October 15th.

Reuter's correspondent at Belgrade telegraphs that it is officially reported that the Turks crossed the frontier near Ristovatz at five o'clock in the morning and attacked the Servians.

A later message states that the Turks surprised the Servians around Ristovatz. The Servians rallied hastily and succeeded in repulsing the Turks.

The fighting continues over ten miles of frontier.

A later telegram says the fighting on the Serbian frontier continued all day long. The Turks numbered 3,000. The Servians, whose casualties were 24 killed and 4 wounded, retired.

The Servian Government denounces the attack as provocative, but declares that it will continue on the defensive unless the incursion assumes greater proportions.

TURKS INVADE BULGARIA.

A telegram from Sofia reports that 500 Turks on Sunday evening attacked a Bulgarian post in the Tamrosch district. The defenders, acting on instructions from Government, withdrew.

ITALIAN-TURKISH DIFFERENCES OVERCOME.

LONDON, October 15th.

Reuter's Berlin correspondent wires that the Deutsche Bank is informed that the Italo-Turkish peace difficulties had been overcome.

EASTERN QUESTIONS IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.

CHINESE AND OPIUM SUPPRESSION.

LONDON, October 15th.

Mr. Acland, replying in the House of Commons to a question by Mr. Rees, M.P., said that the diplomatic and consular reports give evidence of the inability of the Peking Government to impose its will on one of the provinces, and also show that since the revolution China has signally failed to carry out the Anglo-Chinese Agreement for the progressive diminution of the production of opium. Continuing, he said:—"I cannot say from the indications at present that the Central Government will be able in the near future to enforce the discontinuance of poppy growing, but I trust that the gradual restoration of normal conditions, which I believe is in progress, will ultimately lead to this result."

JAPANESE RECIPROCITY.

Mr. Rees asked what was the result of the representations to Japan with reference to the exclusion of British ships from the Japanese coasting trade while Japanese were admitted to the coasting trade of India.

Mr. Acland replied that no representations had yet been made, but the matter was under consideration.

In reply to a further question by Mr. Rees, suggesting that Japan be requested in a friendly manner to undertake the suppression of seditious publications of the Islamic fraternity circulating in India, Mr. Acland said that Sir Claude Macdonald had been instructed to bring the facts under the notice of the Japanese Government, but as the introduction of the literature to India was prohibited he considered it necessary to present a request for suppression.

THE HOME RULE BILL.

LONDON, October 15th.

The House of Commons by 200 votes to 100 adopted the Home Rule "guillotine" resolution, and by 197 to 92 adopted a motion to suspend the eleven o'clock rule on Fridays during the remainder of the session.

ATTEMPTED ASSASSINATION OF MR. ROOSEVELT.

LONDON, October 15th.

At Milwaukee a Socialist fired at Mr. Roosevelt in the street near his hotel. Mr. Roosevelt happily escaped unhurt.

Mr. Roosevelt was proceeding to address a meeting at the time. The crowd in the streets was with difficulty restrained from lynching the assailant, whom the police seized.

Mr. Roosevelt asked that the man might be brought before him, and when this was done he asked him why he had fired. The man did not reply and Mr. Roosevelt proceeded to address the meeting.

A later message states that Mr. Roosevelt would not permit the doctors to examine him but went to the meeting and spoke for over an hour, though weak from loss of blood. Then he was examined. Though there was no immediate danger he was removed to an emergency hospital, where six doctors were unable to find the bullet, which had entered his breast. It was decided to take an X rays photograph.

SCULLING CHAMPIONSHIP.

LONDON, October 15th.

In the world's sculling championship on the course between Putney and Mortlake Barry beat Durnan of Canada by two lengths in 22mins. 31secs. This also included the English championship, which Barry has now secured three times in succession, and by winning 10 years has won the Sportsman cup outright.

SUPREME COURT.

Tuesday, October 16th.

In Original Jurisdiction.

Before His Honour Mr. H. H. J. Gompertz (P. &amp; V. Judge).

QUESTION OF CONSTRUCTION OF A DEED OF TRUST.

The hearing of the summons for determining certain questions under the deed of trust of the Zoroastrian Charity Fund was continued. The plaintiffs were M. P. Talati, D. K. Sethna and A. B. Avasia, and the defendant, H. K. Frani.

Mr. C. G. Alabaster and Mr. Eldon Potter, instructed by Mr. H. W. Looker (of Messrs. Deacon, Looker & Deacon), appeared for the plaintiffs, and Mr. F. C. Jenkin, instructed by Mr. G. K. Hall Brutton, for the defendant.

The case was previously adjourned to enable his Lordship to consider an objection to the proceedings raised by Mr. Jenkin.

His Lordship—I suppose the parties have not come to any friendly agreement?

Mr. Alabaster—No, my Lord, we have not received any overtures from the other side.

His Lordship—And you have not made any overtures?

Mr. Alabaster—No, my Lord.

His Lordship—The first question I have to decide is whether this Court should decline jurisdiction. It was originally urged on the part of the defendants, first of all, that this is a domestic dispute—a mere private quarrel between the trustees of the fund. It was further urged that these regulations, being of a fluid nature and not liable to be revised at any time in general meeting, the decision of the Court on a question of construction can serve no useful purpose. I think, on the whole, this is a matter which has come properly before the Court. Whatever personal jealousies or antagonisms may underlie the proceedings, there is no doubt that a very real difference of opinion as to the meaning of the rules has arisen between the parties. I think that the plaintiffs, in their capacity of trustees, have a right to come to the Court to have these matters of construction finally decided, nor do I think it sufficient to object that the members themselves can alter these rules at any time. It was pointed out that it may be very difficult for one side or the other to muster the requisite three-fourths majority, but possibly the majority will acquiesce in the construction put by the Court. In any case I think it would be inexpedient to rule that an instrument, the terms of which can under certain conditions be altered by the persons interested, is therefore ipso facto excluded from the provisions of rule 54 (a). I think it is my duty to proceed with this summons as the parties are most unfortunately not able to agree to a friendly settlement. Then there is a question whether the subscribers should be represented. The learned Chief Justice has, I understand, already given a ruling ex parte in Chambers that they need not be joined. No question of the regulation of the trust or the administration of the funds is involved. Neither the plaintiffs nor the defendants are applying to have the subscribers joined, and I see no reason why I should increase the costs by directing them to be made parties. Then there is the question whether the Attorney-General should be joined, but if this is a private trust, and I am inclined to think that it is, it was rightly pointed out that the Attorney-General need not be made a party. I will therefore proceed with the hearing of the summons.

The hearing was adjourned until next day.

THE FIRE ON THE "MIKASA."

The following particulars of the recent fire on the Japanese battleship Mikasa are taken from the Japan Chronicle:—

On Thursday evening (3rd instant), the battleship Mikasa, which was lying about 2½ miles outside Kobe harbour, was discovered to be on fire. Thanks to the prompt action taken by the officers the ship was saved from destruction. The magazine was filled with water in order to prevent an explosion of the ammunition. Four men were severely and many others slightly injured during the operations for extinguishing the fire. According to the navigating Lieutenant, it appears that a few minutes before 7 o'clock some men were bathing, when they noticed black smoke with a foul smell in the bathroom. They rushed out and found that the dynamo engine-room was ablaze. They immediately gave the alarm, and the officers on watch lost no time in calling the crew to "fire stations," closing all apertures through which the flames might spread, and filling the magazine with water. The flames were put out before the fire had developed seriously. Captain Osawa, in command of the battleship, and other principal officers, who were at the Tokiwa Kadan, Hyogo, immediately returned to the ship on hearing of the fire, and the battleships Kawachi, Shikishima, Katori, and other warships lying outside the harbour sent assistance and worked their search-lights to assist the operations, as all lights on the Mikasa were extinguished. The auxiliary electric engine at the stern was set to work at 7.40 p.m. and the ship was re-lighted. The flames were entirely extinguished by 10 p.m. The four men who were severely injured were brought ashore and sent to the Kobe Hospital. How the fire originated is unknown.

COMPANY MEETING.

HONGKONG, CANTON AND MACAO STEAMBOAT CO., LTD.

An extraordinary general meeting of the Hongkong, Canton and Macao Steamboat Co., Ltd., was held at the Registered Office of the Company, Hotel Mansions, yesterday for the purpose of sanctioning alterations in the articles of association. Hon. Mr. C. H. Ross presided, and there were also present:—Messrs. F. A. Gomes, G. Friesland, F. Lieb, E. R. Fuhrmann, H. A. Siebs, F. H. Armstrong, G. Laurens (directors), W. E. Clarke (secretary), Messrs. H. W. Looker, E. Ormiston, T. F. Hough, and A. O'D. Gourdin.

The Secretary having read the notice convening the meeting.

The Chairman said—Gentlemen,—This meeting is called to carry into effect the proposals of the Board as intimated to you at the half-yearly meeting last August to have articles more in accordance with modern requirements. With that end in view the directors have caused a new set of articles to be prepared for adoption, if thought fit, at this meeting.

These new articles provide for a yearly meeting instead of half-yearly meetings as suggested by a shareholder at the meeting in August, and for interim dividends. No instructions were given for any special alterations to be made save as regards yearly instead of half-yearly meetings, and the new articles submitted to this meeting have been prepared by the Company's solicitors in accordance with the forms now generally in use and have been considered and approved by your directors. If the resolution is passed it will be necessary to hold a confirmatory meeting, due notice of which will be given.

The Chairman then proposed—"That the regulations contained in the printed document submitted to the meeting, and for the purpose of identification subscribed by the Chairman thereof, be and the same are hereby approved, and that such regulations be and they are hereby adopted as the articles of the Company to the exclusion of and in substitution for all the existing articles thereof."

Mr. T. Hough seconded the resolution, which was carried unanimously.

The Chairman—The resolution just approved will be submitted for confirmation as a special resolution to a second extraordinary meeting, which will be subsequently convened.

The Chairman—This is all the business of the meeting. I thank you for your attendance.

THE ASTOR HOUSE HOTEL, SHANGHAI.

RECONSTRUCTION SCHEME.

An extraordinary general meeting of shareholders of the Astor House Hotel Co., Ltd., was held last week, at which the following resolution, proposed by the Chairman, Mr. D. McNeill, and seconded by Mr. O. Thoresen, was submitted:—"That the Company be reconstructed with a capital of $400,000 and that every shareholder be entitled to one share in the reconstructed Company of the nominal value of $5 in exchange for each share of the nominal value of $25 held by him and that the directors be and they are hereby instructed to take the necessary steps to effect such reconstruction."

Mr. W. E. Detmold moved, and Mr. Thurston seconded, the following amendment:—"That the Company be reconstructed with a capital of $400,000, and that every shareholder be entitled to one share in the new Company of the nominal value of $5 in exchange for each share held by them; and that the balance of shares be issued to the public and the money thus obtained be used for the discharge of existing liabilities and for the building of additional bedroom accommodation and such further changes as may be deemed necessary."

After discussion the amendment was put to the meeting and carried, eight voting for it, and six against.

THE NEW COLONIAL SECRETARY OF CEYLON.

Mr. R. E. Stubbs, of the Colonial Office, has been appointed Colonial Secretary and Deputy Governor of Ceylon in succession to Sir Hugh Clifford, who has been appointed Governor of the Gold Coast. This appointment is causing a very considerable degree of comment and criticism in Ceylon.

The Times of Ceylon, referring to Mr. Stubbs, and his only appearance in the Far East says:—"In that year (1910) he was sent out to the Straits Settlements, the F.M.S., and Hongkong, to enquire into the question of the revision of the Civil Service salaries, and the fact that the effect of his recommendations was to improve the prospects of the lower classes and adversely affect those of the higher grades of the service will probably be regarded as of good augury by our friends the Ceylonese, particularly at this juncture. The salaries of the higher-grade officials were left where they were, and the privilege of free quarters was taken away. This part of Mr. Stubbs' scheme was strongly criticised in the Federal Council as involving a hardship to the officials concerned."

ANNIVERSARY OF THE REPUBLIC.

THE CELEBRATIONS AT PEKING AND WUCHANG.

PEKING, October 10th.

This morning the weather was bright and clear, and the sun shining and the whole of Peking en fête.

At eight o'clock Chao Ping-chun, the Premier, representing the President, carried out the sacrifices to the souls of the dead revolutionaries at Liu-li-chang. Many members of the Cabinet and other notables were present. The ceremony took place at the headquarters of the anniversary celebrations committee in Liu-li-chang, where tablets to the dead had been set up. In front of the tablets flowers, fruit and wine had been placed. Those present paid their respects to the tablets, music followed and then offerings of fruit and flowers were made.

Chao Ping-chun read an elegy extolling the virtues of the dead, and the company present having bowed before the tablets, the ceremony finished.

Meanwhile 16,000 troops had lined the broad Hutamen road, where flags and decorations innumerable were to be seen.

The main celebration took place within the grounds of the old Nobles' College, where a huge pavilion, magnificently decorated, had been erected, while a sumptuous repast had been prepared. Thousands of people were present when, at ten o'clock, President Yuan Shih-kai emerged and took up his position on a dais, covered with red silk, near the pavilion. He was surrounded by chief officials of the republic, Princes Kailang, General Yin Chang and many others who had been prominent officials under the former régime. Hundreds of foreigners, including many ladies, were grouped in the background.

While all the outer cities are keeping high revel on account of the celebrations, silence reigns over the forbidden city, whose inmates no longer cause the populace a moment's consideration. Indeed it is easy to imagine that they have entirely ceased to exist.

PRESIDENT YUAN'S MESSAGE.

President Yuan Shih-kai, in a special message printed by the Peking Daily News, writes:—

"The anniversary of the outbreak of the revolution, which freed China from the ancient dominion of a personal and absolute rule, is a fitting opportunity to record the significant and absolute change which has been wrought in the tempo and outlook of our people regarding national aims and policies."

"Under the old system government was based upon the welfare of the particular dynasty that ruled the country and nothing was done or permitted to be done unless it was calculated to promote or safeguard the individual interests of the Emperor. With the momentous transition into a republic a new and truer conception of government was born. Now that there is no Emperor the people of China are realising that the country is a national common possession whose good government must be based on the idea which inspires national life in all advanced foreign countries, namely, that good government is government for the good of the people. In a great sense men entrusted with high powers of state are governing the country, but they regard themselves merely as national trustees whose duty it is to act and rule in order that the fruits of their labour may be enjoyed by the people."

The message concludes by stating that it is necessary for China to adopt open-door policy with a view to a better understanding of the outside world. It is to be hoped that the change wrought in the mind of the nation will receive sympathetic consideration from the Powers, who have proved not unfriendly in these memorable days in China's history and who have helped to release her from the difficult grasp of financial stringency.

GRAND MARCH PAST.

As soon as the President had taken up his position a grand march-past of 16,000 troops, horse, foot and artillery, commenced. In splendid order they passed first, in half-sections, then the cavalry, in fours, and finally the guns. Massed bands played excellent martial music throughout the proceedings which passed off without a hitch.

The bright yellow robes of the lamas made a conspicuous note of colour in the assembled throng. Indeed the whole scene was magnificently representative of the whole vast territories of the Chinese Empire, including Mongolia and Tibet.

THE LIVING BUDDHA ARRIVES.

One of the most picturesque episodes of the proceedings was the arrival of the Living Buddha of Inner Mongolia in a yellow chair on two wheels, which were placed far behind the body of the conveyance in order to denote the high rank of the occupant. The chair was halted in the centre of a great square which was filled with high officials, in frock-coats, naval and military officers, in gorgeous uniforms, and a crowd of foreigners. The lamas were taken out and the shafts of the carriage lowered to the ground and the Living Buddha, his personal attendants escorting him with the greatest reverence, entered the pavilion and there awaited the ceremony.

FOREIGNERS OBSERVE THE PRESIDENT.

After the march-past President Yuan Shih-kai retired and entered the pavilion, which was near-by, from the rear. As he mounted the rear steps the foreigners in the background rose spontaneously and cheered him enthusiastically. The President, all smiles, appeared delighted and, having mounted to the platform of the pavilion, bowed several times before he retired. Then the formal proceedings came to an end.

During the morning the Government party took down the Ching emblem on the Ta-ching gate and substituted the name Chung-hwa-men. It is interesting to note that behind the Ching emblem they discovered a similar one Ta-ming-men, which is being preserved.

The streets were densely packed with citizens visiting the various celebrations throughout the afternoon. Approximately one hundred thousand attended the Liu-li-chang, where there are great variety entertainments, the principal of which are reproductions of leading events in the revolution. One department is filled with photographs of notable men connected with the revolution, living and dead, while another contains scrolls of wondrous characters. Two are said to be particularly splendid. Each consists of eight characters: the first, translated literally, means "One year ago," while the other means "Once in a thousand years."

AMUSING INCIDENTS.

There were several amusing incidents in connection with queues, which a party, waiting outside the gate, declared must be cut off before the owner could enter. The majority acquiesced, but a few people objected indignantly and departed. Soon quite a pile of queues lay on the ground.

With this slight exception the demeanour of the whole visible populace was that of joyous participation in the national event. Old residents, both foreign and Chinese, affirm that they have never witnessed such complete unanimity before.

MANCHU PRINCES ABSENT.

The absence of the Manchu Princes was noticeable, but it is generally believed that they feared, without reason, that their presence might occasion some display of feeling against the Manchus. General Yin Chang, however, was one of the personages most honoured at the morning ceremony.

THE CELEBRATION AT WUCHANG.

On the eve of the anniversary General Li Yuan Hung, the Vice-President, issued a long manifesto in which he said:—

"To Hapke belongs the glory of beginning the Revolution. The aims of the martyrs who lost their lives for the cause have been accomplished. During the year there have been many disturbances and executions which have caused no much grief. The martyrs died for the Republic and not for anarchy. One revolution is enough and constitutional methods should be used to effect other changes. Both soldiers and the people should attend to their duty and be diligent in their work so that they may strengthen and enrich the country. Thus will you emulate the public-spirit of the departed heroes whose memory you will celebrate to-morrow."

WU-CHANG, October 10th.

Yesterday evening great crowds gathered to watch the illumination of the Emperor's Temple with electricity. To-day's function included a procession to the Temple and the substitution of tablets, on which are engraved the names of the three men who were executed by Viceroy Jui Cheng on the eve of the revolution, for the Emperor's tablet, worship and receptions and luncheons for both Chinese and foreigners.

The celebrations in commemoration of the outbreak of the revolution have been a great success.

The morning ceremony took place at the Emperor's Temple, where were hung pictures of the three heroes, Liu, Pin and Yang, who were executed by Viceroy Jui Cheng on the eve of the Revolution, and also of Chiao, the first-Tsun of Hunan, with numerous tablets representing martyrs who died during the revolution. Representatives of the President and Vice-President of the National Council pronounced eulogiums, after which the ancient imperial sacrifices were offered. Some hundreds of wounded veterans and also the orphans of the martyrs then worshipped. The service was an imposing and memorable one.

Later crowds of citizens visited the Temple.

At the public luncheon given at the cotton mill Sun-fab-hsu, the representative of General Li Yuan Hung made a great speech. He thanked the foreign nations for the neutrality which they had observed during the revolution. He said he was conscious of Chinese limitations, and they would seek help, especially educational help, from abroad. He emphasised the desire of the Government to maintain cordial foreign relations and to plan compulsory education. He would exhort reformers to build up that which the people had formerly destroyed.

Bishop Luo, in replying, praised General Li Yuan Hung and thanked the Government for their policy of "protecting foreigners."

The next speaker was Miss Sun, a woman representative.

Many nations were represented at the gathering, where great cordiality and enthusiasm prevailed throughout. General and Mrs. Li received the guests in the yamen afterwards.—Reuter.

THE SALE OF UNIFORMS AND ARMS.

The Wuchang police have issued a proclamation forbidding the private sale of uniforms or arms of all sorts. Those possessing such things, however obtained, must deliver them to the police, and, in future, vendors of these articles will be arrested at sight. In time of trouble all persons possessing arms will be liable to be suspected of conspiracy. During the past year many unlicensed shops have only engaged in this trade, but, in future, the Government will take entire control.

TANJONG PAGAR BOARD.

REPORT FOR THE HALF-YEAR.

The half-yearly administration report of the Tanjong Pagar Dock Board is to hand, signed by Mr. Lane, the Acting Chairman. It is mainly a statistical record, with many statements of account. The report covers the half-year ending June 30th last, and shows that the credit balance of general revenue account for the period under review is $904,264.54, which, together with the sum of $82,292.55 brought forward from the previous half-year's accounts, gives a balance at credit of $986,557.09. Of the total disposable balance of $986,557.09, interest paid or due to Government on cash received from loan funds under Ordinance No. IV of 1907, absorbs $767,306.69. $100,000 has been transferred to Reserve Fund, $50,000 to Renewals Equalization Account, and the balance remaining, $73,249.40, is carried forward.

GUN-RUNNING IN MONGOLIA.

THE SEIZURE OF A JAPANESE CARAVAN.

Writing a month ago the Times correspondent at Peking said:—

From all accounts gun-running in Mongolia appears to have been carried on very extensively of late, as a Chinese bandit, who calls himself the "Field-Marshal of the Hutuktu," has under him a force of Mongols adequately equipped with modern rifles and ammunition, and finds himself in a position to levy open war upon the Chinese Government. Somewhat indefinite information has reached Mukden and Peking of fighting at Taonanfu and other vague points within that triangle of territory formed by the Siberian Railway, and of which Harbin is the apex. Places distant about 200 miles to the west of Harbin, but nameless on the map, have been occupied by Mongol forces, while Taonanfu has been the scene of skirmishing between the Mongols and the small Chinese garrison. A punitive expedition based on Simintun, numbering some 5,000 men, has been marching for the past week towards the disturbed zone, and further detachments have been despatched from other points. Already, some weeks ago, a large caravan conveying war material was captured by the Chinese authorities on the Manchurian frontier. It was accompanied by Japanese, some of whom were killed and others taken prisoner. It is far from clear that the activity of the Mongol force represents a concerted scheme of rebellion against the Chinese Government. More likely it is that the Hungtutzu chief in command has gathered together a band of the robbers who infest Manchuria, and has joined himself to a body of Mongols secretly encouraged by the Mongolian princes to flout Chinese authority and feel the temper of the Republican Government. The Mongol force is said to number 2,000, and should easily be disposed of by the Chinese troops. But the Mongols will merely disperse in the desert, to become available at any other point and any other moment desired by those prompting their action.

AN INTERNATIONAL DIFFICULTY.

The affair of the convoy may give rise to a difficulty between China and Japan. It is being stated by the Chinese that the Japanese have demanded compensation for the seizure, but this is not exactly correct, as the Japanese merely reserve the right to claim damages for the murder and maltreatment of their nationals, and have no intention of protecting the interests of their traders who were engaged in an illegal transaction. The story of the convoy is as follows:—In the middle of July a party of some 20 Japanese, escorted by a caravan of 30 or 40 carts loaded with cases ostensibly containing agricultural implements, left the station of Kanchuling on the South Manchurian Railway in a westerly direction. The Chinese authorities sent an armed force in pursuit, and the convoy was overtaken in a marshy ground on the Mongolian frontier, far from human habitation. The convoy complied with the order to halt. From this point in the narrative Japanese and Chinese accounts differ. The Japanese say that the Chinese force left the convoy in the marsh and went forward to procure supplies, with which they promised to return before nightfall. But dark coming on, the convoy was compelled to go forward to procure food for the large number of men and animals of which it was composed. All the carts proceeded westward except one, which stuck in the mud.

During the night, the Japanese account says, the convoy was fired upon by the Chinese soldiers, when several Japanese were killed. The remaining Japanese thereupon ran back to the cart which was bogged, broke open the cases in it, and extracted arms and ammunition, with which they defended themselves against the Chinese. When more of their number had been killed, however, they surrendered. The Japanese now charge the Chinese with having unnecessarily fired upon the convoy which had surrendered, with having murdered the wounded, and with having brutally disfigured the dead. A Japanese doctor who afterwards visited the scene is stated to have taken photographs showing the dead to have been disembowelled, deprived of the eyes, and to have been otherwise abominably mutilated. The Chinese, on the other hand, say that after the convoy surrendered the combined parties amicably proceeded forward, when in the night the Japanese, assisted by a number of Mongols who were with their party, attacked the Chinese with the object of recapturing the convoy, and that it was in fighting initiated by the Japanese that Japanese were killed. The Japanese claim that nine of their number were killed and that three are missing, while the Chinese declare that of the corpses found by the Japanese doctor several were Chinese. Owing to the mutilation and to decomposition apparently this point is difficult to settle.

THE QUESTION OF COMPENSATION.

So far as claims for compensation are concerned, the Japanese clearly have no case in regard to the arms, which were being smuggled by professional gun-runners. But if it is a fact that the convoy was peaceably surrendered, the Japanese prisoners, in accordance with the requirements of exterritoriality, should have been handed over to the Japanese authorities for trial. A breach of the proper procedure, which led to the death of Japanese, would entitle the Japanese Government to demand compensation for the lives destroyed. The Chinese, of course, declare that the Japanese were killed in consequence of their own improper attempt to recapture the convoy. As regards the political question, the Japanese Government, needless to say, is being accused of being at the back of the transaction, with a view to arming the Mongols and fomenting trouble with China. To every move of Japan in Manchuria Machiavellian motives are being attributed, both by foreigners and Chinese, and the evidence being transferred to the Japanese in this case is just about as substantial as in any other that might be cited. It is a matter of taste whether the observer believes the Japanese Government to be engaged in making trouble in Eastern Mongolia or whether he treats this case as a simple affair of gun-running by adventurous spirits seeking for large profits by dangerous enterprise. It is suggested that if, and when, Japan desires to precipitate developments she would probably choose less clumsy methods.
